WORKSHOP APPLICATION FORM

The 2024 Convention Program Committee welcomes proposals for workshops to be presented at our annual convention which will be held on May 31, June 1 and June 2 in Columbus, Ohio.

Guidelines for workshop topics:

- Topics should be directly related to the SAA program of recovery – working the Twelve Steps, applying the Twelve Traditions and proposed SAA Twelve Concepts for World Service, practicing program principles in our lives and our groups, and carrying the message to other sex addicts.
- The presenter should have sufficient program experience and sexual sobriety to be able to share openly and honestly about his/her/their own experience, strength, and hope in recovery.
- Workshops should be planned for sixty to ninety minutes, including time for questions and discussion.
- Outside issues are not appropriate. Avoid opinions or discussions of therapy, medicine, religion, or other similar topics. Personal religious beliefs and convictions are valid, but are not appropriate for sharing in the workshop setting.
- Recommendation of literature other than SAA publications should be avoided.
- All information in this application is kept strictly confidential.
- A general release must be signed by every workshop presenter.

Completed forms may be submitted online or emailed to info@saa-recovery.org.

Paper copies may be sent via postal mail: ISO, PO Box 70949, Houston, TX 77270
